Introduction

In accordance with the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended by Public Laws 101-542, 102-26, 102-325, and 103-208, all related to the Student Right-To-Know and Campus Security Act, South Baylo University provides current and prospective students, employees, and prospective employees with information about campus safety policies and procedures, as well as statistics regarding specific crimes occurring on or near campus.

The most recent report is posted on the campus bulletin board and is available upon request. Please contact the Student Services Coordinator/Director of Operations or write to the Administrative Office to request a copy.

The University takes any reported incident seriously. Students, faculty, and staff are encouraged to report crimes or suspected crimes to Student Services, the Director of Operations, or another appropriate university authority, who will immediately notify local law enforcement. If no university authority is available, individuals should contact the local police directly.

South Baylo University is committed to protecting the safety of all students, staff, and faculty by promoting informed awareness through transparent policies, emergency alerts, and crime disclosures.

Reporting Crimes and Emergencies

All crimes occurring on campus should be reported immediately to the relevant Police Department:

Anaheim Campus: Anaheim Police Department

Los Angeles Campus: LAPD Wilshire Community Police Station

The University urges victims and witnesses to report any suspicious activity—day or night.

Confidential Reporting Process

If a victim does not wish to file a police report, crimes can be reported anonymously to the Student Services Coordinator or the Director of Operations. These confidential reports will be included in annual crime statistics, though no investigation will be pursued.

Reporting Acts of Workplace Violence

Faculty and staff should report any acts or threats of violence to the Student Services

Coordinator or Administration Office at:

Anaheim: (714) 533-1495

Los Angeles: (213) 738-0712

Be ready to provide:

WHO: Names and descriptions of those involved

WHAT: Circumstances and sequence of events

WHEN: Time of the incident

WHERE: Location of the incident

HOW & WHY: Description and suspected cause

All reports will be reviewed by the authorized administrator and/or University President for possible follow-up.

Fire Safety Report

The Higher Education Opportunity Act (2008) requires institutions with on-campus housing to publish a fire safety report.

Note: South Baylo University does not provide on-campus housing.

Reporting Hate Crimes

A hate crime is any act committed against a person or institution due to perceived characteristics such as race, nationality, religion, gender, disability, or sexual orientation.

Even misdemeanors may be elevated to felonies if motivated by bias. Verbal threats can also be prosecuted if they include specific threats of violence.
